Matters Arising

Thank you to Gill for taking the minutes at the AGM.

Website needs updating especially the photographs – Libby to liaise with Sue Crier. Loveday enquired about the St Breward Community Bus and anyone driving the bus will need a letter C on their licence. The bus is not available during school hours as the bus has to be available to pick up school children. The club are considering booking the bus for 9th Oct the trip to Healey's Cider Farm at Newquay.

Libby will write to Mick, Sue and Midge to thank them for their work on committee.

Discussed Secretarial duties and the committee are sharing the duties until a secretary is appointed. David will take minutes, Gill will make up posters for forthcoming visits, Loveday will e-mail members on forthcoming events, Margaret will notify members of Teas and Raffle rota at talks. Libby will announce at next meeting we are in need of a Media Person and Secretary to come on committee.

Loveday has heard from Highgrove and we can visit the gardens again we are awaiting on a date this year the club can visit. The costs will be £15 to visit the gardens plus around £35 for the coach looking at around £50 per head for the trip, Loveday will ask at the next meeting for names of those who wish to book.

Cotehele visit in April is free to anyone who is National Trust Member and non-members will be £6.00 Gill to collect names at next meeting to confirm numbers for Pete Scholes.
